There are too many wonderful memories to fit in this one space. Aunty Irene was a second mother to many of us, she was there whenever she was needed (and that was a lot in this big family). She brought joy to many hearts and I will go forward knowing that she will be watching over me.....Go Red Sox, Aunty Irene.....I Love you. Bev

Dear family, We are very sorry for the loss of Irene. She and her niece, Debra, attended the funeral Mass of my father many years ago. I really appreciated their presence there. We support you in thought and prayer as you go through this sorrowful time. God bless Irene and your family. Elaine and Joe White
