Michael James Plourde

JUN 30, 2012

Michael James Plourde, 30, of Plaistow, New Hampshire, passed away on Saturday, June 30, 2012 in his home at his beloved wife's side. Michael was born in Lawrence, Massachusetts on October 21, 1981, son of Debra (Hendry) Plourde and Robert G. Plourde. He was a graduate of Pinkerton Academy, class of 2000; and additionally attended Pinkerton Academy Electrical program, Alvirne Vocational, Whittier Regional Technical Schools, and several State of NH Department of Labor Apprenticeship programs from 1999 to 2003. Michael became a proud electrician that took great pride with all his jobs while working over the past twelve years alongside and assisting his father in running the family businesses, Plourde Electrical Contractors and Associates and New England Life and Safety. Michael was married to his childhood sweetheart, Jessica Ann (Seeley) Plourde on October 1, 2011 in Nahant, Massachusetts. Mike was the greatest husband, son, brother, and friend anyone could ask for. He would do anything for the people he loved. He would even give you the shirt off his back. Mike lived his life to the fullest, danced like no one was watching, sang like no one cared, and loved like he was never hurt. Michael trusted everyone and failed no one. He was an avid sports fan who loved all New England's sports teams. The speakers in his car often announced his arrival, but it was the sound of his voice that was always such sweet music to our ears. If the day was nice and sunny, Michael displayed his sense of humor to present reasons for skipping work and heading to the golf course, two of his favorite things. Michael's love for his father and his passion for living life to the fullest would often find him flying alongside his father in their helicopters discovering sites beyond belief. He is survived by his wife Jessica (Seeley) Plourde of Plaistow; his mother Debra A. Plourde, his father Robert G. Plourde, and his sister Nicole M. Plourde, all of East Hampstead; his maternal grandfather, Robert J. Hendry of Salem, NH; his paternal grandparents Josephine and Walter Peek of Rye, NH; his mother and father in-law

My Dear Godson,"Henry...Rollinggardner...Whopinfeltner". Although my heart feels broken right now from mourning the loss of you in our physical lives, I know that it will not remain this way. You ALWAYS had a special way of bringing laughter in our lives and it is those wonderful memories that will continue to put my broken heart back together. I want you to know that even though your time on this earth with us was way too short I am ever so thankful to God for giving you to us for the short time he did before he called you "Home". Sadness didn't exist when people were around you. I hope that you will be able to help those people now who may be feeling saddened from losing you by surrounding them with your ever lasting guidance and unconditional love from above. Thank you Michael for Always being there when I needed you for something... as little as changing a lightbulb for me. You have to go now, it will be okay Michael and you have to know we will all heal with time. But you will not be forgotten. I will see you again someday but until then I wanted you to hear it one more time from me...."I have and will ALWAYS Love you." Rest Michael, in Peace. xoxo Auntie Paula

Dear Bob,Debra,and Nicole, Please accept our most heartfelt sympathy and prayers for your loss. It is our hope that you find strength and solace through your faith and the memories of your beloved son, Michael. In his memory, we would like to share this poem with you. God bless you all. Jim, Diane, Pam and Dave Gariepy
Death, be not proud, though some have called thee Mighty and dreadful, for thou art not so; For those whom thou think'st thou dost overthrow, Die not, poor Death, nor yet canst thou kill me. From rest and sleep, which but thy pictures be, Much pleasure; then from thee much more must flow, And soonest our best men with thee do go, Rest of their bones, and soul's delivery. Thou art slave to fate, chance, kings, and desperate men, And dost with poison, war, and sickness dwell; And poppy or charms can make us sleep as well And better than thy stroke; why swell'st thou then? One short sleep past, we wake eternally, And death shall be no more; Death, thou shalt die. John Donne
