Olga Maria Comas Bacardi

JAN 10, 2013

Olga Maria Comas Bacardi, formerly Olga Maria Bartes Rodriguez Campa, 69, died on January 10, 2013 with her family by her side at the Kaplan Hospice House in Danvers, Massachusetts at 7:17 p.m. She is survived by her loving husband, Adolfo Comas Bacardi, with whom she shared 46 years of marriage. Olga was originally from Havana, Cuba and was born on July 17, 1943. She was the only daughter of Franc Bartes and Olga R Campa. Studied in Merici Catholic School until her family left Cuba in 1961 to finish high school in Louisiana. She graduated from the University of Miami in 1966 with a bachelor degree in languages and was fluent in French, Spanish, German and English. She loved to travel the world and see the art, the architecture and the history of anywhere her travels took her. She dedicated her life to being an incredible homemaker, a dedicated wife, a supportive mother, and a loving grandmother who cherished every moment with her family. Olga never gave up her fight with her illness and battled 13 years of a rare cancer called carcinoid. She was a woman whose strength was admirable by the many people who knew her. She was a true friend to all that were lucky enough to know her and will be remembered as a loving soul who always wanted the best for everyone. She is survived by her oldest son Toten Francisco, her daughter Ana Maria, her husband William and granddaughter Ana Cristina (3), and her youngest son Anton Emilio with wife Dana and grandchildren Abby (14) and Jesse (11). Her funeral arrangements are with the John Breen Memorial Funeral Home and a holy mass will be celebrated at St. Michael Parish in North Andover Massachusetts on Tuesday, January 15, 2013 at 10:00AM. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to: The Dana Farber Cancer Institute c/o Matthew Kulke M.D. 450 Brookline Avenue, D-1225 Boston, MA 02215 Or There with Care, 2825 wilderness place #100, Boulder, CO 80301.

Dear Bacardi Family, I am so sorry to have read of your loss. Please accept my sincere condolences. Something that I have personally found to be of great comfort is what the Bible says at John 5:28,29 as well as Revelation 21:4. In these verses we see that soon God is going to bring about a resurrection of our loved ones as well as do away with all causes we have for suffering including sickness and death. Knowing this has always comforted me and it is my sincere hope that these thoughts comfort your family as well. Rebekah
