There have been times over the years when a fleeting thought would pass and I'd think of you, wondering if it ever happened to you too. When an opportunity is suddenly gone forever you realize too late that you wanted it. Rest peacefully. Stephannie

I want you all to know how much Shirley will be missed by the staff and residents of the Morton St. group home. She filled the role of "Mom" for anyone needing a shoulder to cry on or some wise advice. I'll especially miss sitting next to her at staff meetings where she would often erupt into her famous booming laughter and reach out to take hold of my arm. My sincerest condolences, Pauline Everson
