Hello Beth, I'm sorry for the loss of your Mom. You've been very much in my thoughts and prayers these last couple of days. I've asked Amanda to make sure your Mom gets a good orientation;). Please find great satisfaction in that you've done more than most to care for your parents, and that your friends are always here for you. Bob

Loving condolences and prayers to Vera's family. I knew Vera and her sister Josephine since they becamed involved in our Associate program in 1975. They were both very faithful members. I know Vera minded it when she couldn't be active in the program anymore. She will be missed and remembered in the prayers of our sisters. Thank you, Beth, for sharing the gift of your mother with us.
