Will miss your smiling ways my dear friend. We go back to the late 50's and shared our love for karaoke since the 90's. My Cousin Danny Ciarcia, my Mom Rose and Sister Lynne pray that one day we will all be together again singing and laughing like we used to. Rest in peace until He awakens you to the life you deserved. With deepest sympathy to your family, Dave Frasier and family.

My cousin Les and I spent our youth hunting, fishing and rowing his father and our uncle Wally around local lakes. Les' spirits were always high even as his health declined. Now he is with his parents and brother Billy. God bless him.

I have known Les since 1978. I always knew him to be a gentleman and a good companion. I will always treasure the memories of his multiple course gourmet dinners that he held for all of his friends at his home. His friendship will be missed but my memories of him will never be forgotten.
