George, Few people have had the opportunity to have a friend, a buddy and companion as a father. You were blessed. On the other hand, he was blessed to have such a loyal, caring son who put so much effort into caring for him. I know you will miss him as we who knew him will miss him. Take care.

George, Myself, and my family and friends will dearly miss your father. I did not know him well but you did not have to be in his company long to feel as though you knew him for years. He was a very sweet man, as many of my friends remember, and will be dearly missed. Anything I can do to help you through this difficult time please let me know. Your dear friend, Linda

DO NOT GO GENTLE INTO THAT GOOD NIGHT Do not go gentle into that good night. Old age should burn and rave at close of day. Rage, rage against the dying of the light. Though wise men at their end know dark is right. Because their words had forked no lightning they Do not go gentle into that good night. Good men, the last wave by, crying how bright Their frail deeds might have danced in a green bay. Rage, rage against the dying of the light. Wild men who caught and sang the sun in flight And learn, too late, they grieved it on its way. Do not go gentle into that good night. Grave men, near death, who see the blinding sight Blind eyes could blaze like meteors and be gay. Rage, rage against the dying of the light. And you, my father, there on that sad height, Curse, bless, me now with your fierce tears, I pray. Do not go gentle into that good night. Rage, rage against the dying of the light. DYLAN THOMAS

George, I am deeply sadden to hear of the loss of your dad. I did not know him well at all, but I certainly see the love you had for him and I sense that all in your family will miss him. One day...according to Jesus Christ, the son of the most high God Jehovah, all those in the tomb will hear his voice and come to life again and then never to die again. In paradise he said they would reside forever. For now he is at rest, no longer in pain nor facing distressing situations. When you have a chance read Ecclesiastes 9:5,6,10 & John 5:28,29
