To Arline's family, I worked with Arline at LGH when I graduated from Nursing school. She was a wonderful, sweet and living woman. You were the center or her life. Even though I never met you, I knew you through your Mother. One Christmas she made an apron for all if us - I still wear mine all the time. She taught me so much. I frequently tell my family and friends about the two joined hearts she wore around her neck with a constant reminder of her beloved Frank. She was an amazing woman who I cared deeply for. My prayers and thoughts are with all of you. Rest in peace dear Arline. Patty Owens
