I was deeply saddened to hear about Aunt Mary's passing, and certainly disappointed about missing the services commemorating her life. This is, no doubt, a distinct disadvantage of living out of the area. Nevertheless, please accept our deepest expression of sympathy for your loss. Jane and John Crafton

It has been quite a while since I have seen Mary (Two Beers) but I have never forgotten the first time I met her. It was New Years Eve in 1958 and Armand (Sonny) and I dropped in. It was that nite that I was introduced to Mary's "Russian" ice cream - a spoonful. Need I say more. So sorry for your loss. Connie and Armand Rivard
