Philip J. Gallant

FEB 1, 2013

Philip Gallant passed peacefully in his home on February 19, 2013, after a short illness. Philip was born on January 25, 1935, in Caribou, ME to Roseanna Sowma and Melvin Gallant. He spent his life in Lawrence, MA. He owned and worked at the Continental Beauty Salon with his dear friend and long-time business partner Joseph Zappala. Philip's impeccable taste was matched only by his exceptional baking skills which left his friends and loved ones eager to break their diets whenever they saw him. Philip brightened the lives of everyone he met and will be forever remembered for his quick wit and contagious laughter. Even in his last days, Philip's humor brought joy to his loved ones. Philip is survived by several loving aunts, uncles, cousins and god children. Philip's life will be celebrated on Thursday, February 21st during the calling hours of 3:00-7:00 P.M. at Breen's Memorial Funeral Home, 122 Amesbury St., Lawrence, MA. His funeral service will be held on Friday, February 22nd at St. Anthony's, 145 Amesbury St., Lawrence, MA at 10:00 A.M. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to St. Jude's Cancer Research Center, or Merrimack Valley Hospice. To send an online condolence or for more information, please go to www.breenfuneralhome.com.

My family and I are deeply saddened by Phil's passing. He was such a wonderful person and a fantastic neighbor. He always greeted my family and I with a huge smile every time he saw us. I always enjoyed seeing him joyfully working in his yard, which he created into a small paradise. He was truly gifted in his ability to create beauty. He was always very kind to my kids, bringing them candy for almost every holiday. We were all very fond of him, and he will not be forgotten. My deepest sympathy goes out to all of his family and friends for their incredible loss. I will be praying for comfort and peace for you all.
