Herman B. Goldshein

Herman Goldshein, 98, loved his family, his books, the great FDR and just about every dog he ever met. A World War II Army veteran, he always had a love for learning and read his cherished books up until his death. Pop will be sorely missed by his son Mark, daughter Sandy, daughters-in-law Stefani and Nancy, and his three grandchildren Laura, Steven, and Jack. May you rest in peace dearest Dad. A Memorial service will be announced by the family. Donations may be made to Doctors Without Borders or National Military Family Association
