Dear Amy, Ann Marie, Ellen and Julie, I am so sorry for your loss. Know that we are thinking of you and wish you the best during this difficult time. I hope the last two weeks have been helpful and you found this time helpful in processing everything together. Hopefully, as you pass this time of helping your dad (grandpa) transition to be with his wife you'll find comfort in happy memories. Hope to see you all soon. Amy, see you when you return to Phoenix. Love, Val and Greg James

Even though our family has known Henry for a few years as a neighbor, his friendliness and sociability cheered us up. Whether walking for exercise or pushing our grandchildren in a stroller, it was fun talking to him of his life. His wife and daughters and grandchildren were very important in his conversations as well as his military experiences. I can still see his smile.

I only knew Henry for a short 3 months while he was a resident at Blaire House. I would look forward to meeting him in the Sun Room, me with my wife and Henry with his daughter. We would engage in great conversations. He was like a breath of fresh air in a place that otherwise would bring sadness. Just a great guy! I offer my sincere condolences. As Henry would tell me, "keep the faith, whatever is left of it."
