My dear cousin Beth, you were a most gentle, sweet, caring, generous and thoughtful person - an absolute sweetheart. For most of us who believe in God and eternal life with Him and all those family and friends who preceded us in death, we nevertheless perhaps worry a bit as to whether we have conducted ourselves during our earthly lives in such a manner as to be deserving of achieving our ultimate goal as believers. While your untimely passing is especially difficult to accept by your brothers and sisters, both they and all of us who had the privilege of knowing you should be comforted by the knowledge that Heaven exists for the best of God's sons and daughters, like Beth, upon whom his favor most certainly rests. May God bless you and may He and all of the Dufresne and Hewett family members been waiting to welcome you home. Cousin Pete, Eileen, Bob, Katie, Patrick and Brendan.
