Dear Ryan, Please accept my apologies for this late conveyance of condolences on the passing of your brother, Sean Patrick. Having recently conversed with another CCHS Alumnus, Ken Franco, I became aware of this regrettable news. God Bless your brother, Sean, and may He keep him in the palm of His hand. God will also be your consolation in this trying time for you, and your loved ones. Stay well! Cordially, John(CCHS '1960) & A. Fina Fazio

Our prayer is for peace - for your brother Sean and for yourselves. The following is from an unknown source: "People will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel." May the memories you hold close be those that bring tender feelings to your heart and smiles back to your faces. God bless you. [Clients/friends of C. Ryan Buckley]

Ronnie, we are so sad for you and your family at the sudden passing of Sean. I know how much you will miss him. We also know how you cherish your memories of the two of you not only at Woodstock but I'm sure there was all kinds of other mischief as well. These memories will give you joy for years to come and make certain he will never be forgotten.
