Carol & Bill - So very sorry to hear about Uncle Bill. I would have hoped to visit him while he was in the nursing home - no one every told me. I worry especially about Georgie. His circle of friends seem to be disappearing - Sisters Therese and Irene and now Uncle Bill. May Uncle Bill rest in peace - Paula

Dear Carole: So sorry to read about your Dad's death, please accept my condolences. I only knew about you through my mother, Sara Wengel. Your Dad was a lovely looking man, who radiates that type of kindness that the Hoyt man had. Amazing also that Harry Hoyt died so close to Bill's death. I was never aware that there was a Harry Hoyt, who must have been named after my grandfather. Wish I had known the family better. I go up to Hampstead at least once a year to the graves with my cousin Annda (Hazel's granddaughter) from the Cape. Have done a planting hope it takes, if not next year. Carole, hope you are doing well, so lucky to have your Dad so long a time, it's a celebration of life. Sandra Brown
