I was thinking of Mary Beth this weekend as our St. Mary's class of 1974 celebrated our 50th reunion. I found my old autograph book where Mary Beth had written about our shared love of the Red Sox. She will always be remembered and missed.

My deepest sympathy to the family for the loss of Mary Beth.,i just found out from my brother and I have the fondest memories of Mary Beth through her sister Christine.. I remember sitting on our steps outside with Mary Beth and she was telling me a story of rings and jewels that were on the roof top of the tenement she lived in, she described them so beautifully I wanted to believe that they really were there. That was the fondest memory of her for me. She was so sweet and nice. I know she is in a special place with all the angels. God bless the whole Fleming family.

To Family and Friends of my dear friend, Mary Beth Fleming, and especially to her beloved DAVID HERZOG. My deepest condolences is the passing of Mary Beth. She was a woman filled life and love. She is sadly missed by my husband and myself. I am so glad we made that special trip from Los Angeles to Pittsburgh to meet Mary Beth and David. I told her I would never forget her and she reassured me she would never forget me, no matter what. It was with tears we said our goodbyes that February morning in 2009. I can hardly wait to see her again as God's light shines upon her face. God bless you as he holds you in the palm of his hand in this time of sorrow. David, God bless you as He comforts you in this time of deep sorrow. The love you shared shined as bright as the sun.

Dear Fleming Family, I am very sadden to hear about Mary Beth's passing (I found out about Mary's death today). I have so many fond memories of our friendship! Especially when we would drive all the way down to Rhode Island to see the band Talk of The Town. We would drive to where ever the band played. We became very good friends with the band members and their families. I have always said "God takes the wrong people". Mary and I had a great time when we went to Hawaii. We have lost a wonderful person. Mary Beth will always be in my heart! With Love, Louann Bistany
