Paul, David, and Ann On behalf of my family...Claire and John and family of Tucson, Sandy, Jac, Jacob, and Trevor Rodrigue of Nashua, and Michael Smith and myself I want to extend my sincerest words of sorrow upon the death of your Mother and my Aunt Rita. I did not spend nearly as much time with all of you as I should have but my thoughts were with you quite often. I remember when all of you were born, when you were toddlers, schoolkids, young adults but I sort of lost track of you when you became adults. Your sorrows are deep now as should be. They say time makes it easier but I am not certain of that. Your parent raised 3 wonderful children often during trying times but they did it and succeeded in grand fashion. Remember your Mother for her great strengths, beliefs, and remarkable abilities to always keep your family strong and together. Love to all of you. Ann
