I didn't know Ms. Gonet, but I worked with her daughter Jennifer! From stories I have heard she was an amazing woman. I cannot even begin to imagine the amount of pain that Jen is experiencing right now. But I send my deepest condolences even though I know that doesn't offer much! May Barbara Rest In Peace and her legacy continue to live on through her children.

Aunty Barbara, I love you so much, you are an amazing woman and taught me so many things about appreciating life. With all your illness you raised an amazing daughter as a single parent, and if that was not difficult enough you cared for your brother John for 25 years after the passing on your Mother. As the years went on and your illness became worse you never complained and never asked for anything. You just continued to fight for life never giving up. You will be forever in my heart and I will miss you more and more as every day passes. Now you have been reunited with your Mother, Father and your brother John, and the illness is gone. May you rest in peace and enjoy your life in paradise. h
