Joe, Diane and Grandchildren, So sorry I could not attend Peggy's wake. I am at home with an intestinal flu. Such a wonderful lady. I knew her from Willow St., then to meet up again on Ferry St. was really funny. Always happy. We think of all of you often and send our sincere condolences. We know she will be deeply missed. Love, Janice and Stephen Currier

Mr. Norton and family; The Good Lord out stretched his arms, and extended his hands to your dear mother, and he took her safely home. You were a wonderful son to your mother. You can close your eyes at night, and have no regrets. When Tony Kenny of Ireland made his famous tape of "My Son", he had you in mind..... God Bless. May She Rest in Peace, in the hands of Her Creator. Open the Gates into Heaven for Mrs. Norton. Love Barbara
