Margaret, You and Hank were such wonderful friends to my parents, Al and Alice. We had tried to contact you when Alice passed in April. I personally always thought you were the handsomest of couples, so tall and stately. I enjoyed the social gatherings when I had the pleasure of your company when Hank was on the Credit Union Board, and I worked in the office. I am very sorry for your loss. 62 years - that truly is amazing. Gael

Dear Janet, I read of your father's passing in last night's Eagle Tribune and I wanted to send along my condolences. You probably don't recognize the name Scanlon, but it was Killeen when we were at Lawrence High School together. It has been a long time but I remember visiting your house and both your Mom & Dad. Just wanted to know I was thinking of you and your family at this difficult time. Best regards, Kathy (Killeen) Scanlon
