Dear LaTulippe Family, Please accept my deep sympathy during this sad time. The last time I visited with my cousin Ronnie was when we were both sixteen years of age. His Grammy and my Grammy were sisters-in-law, both married to Dziadosz brothers. The last time I spoke with Ronnie on the phone was as he was getting ready to attend the First Holy Communion for one of his grandchildren. My memories of Ronnie are of a kind-hearted young man. God bless him and your family always.

While Fina met "Ronny" later in life, it seems as though I always knew "Ron" because of his close relationship with my cousin Gerry D"Agostino. They grew up together. I even remember "Ron" at Salisbury Beach visiting Gerry while Ron was on leave and wearing his khaki-marine uniform. As time passed, I answered the door just to find "Ron" saying "Hello", and mentioning that he had come to our house to lay down linoleum for Harold Traub, owner of "Arrow Floor & Tile". More time passed. I greeted "Ron", his Mrs. and some of their children, while I was running for Mayor of Methuen in 1993. I will never forget "Ron's" generous demeanor, and his wonderful family. May you enjoy yourself in God's Heaven, "Ron". You surely earned it while on this earth. Ciao For Now! Au Bientot! Chin ku ya!!! J.V.
