Angelina (Manzi) Hyatt

NOV 14, 1928 - SEP 8, 2017

Angelina (Manzi) Hyatt, 88 years old, died while surrounded by her family on the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Mother. Angie was married for 58 years to Wilbur (“Zeke”) Hyatt who predeceased her in 2009. She was the daughter of the late Michael and Angelina Manzi of Lawrence, the youngest of their eleven children. She is the proud mother of seven children, nonna to twenty-five grandchildren, and great-grandmother to five great-grandchildren.

Angie grew up in Lawrence and attended Holy Rosary Grammar School and Lawrence High School. She worked at Manzi Electric Corporation before she became a mother. When her children were all in school, she worked as the office manager for the Northeastern Electrical Contractors Association in Lawrence.

Angie was known for her open heart, her generosity of spirit and her welcoming ways to all, as well as her devotion to God, family and her Catholic faith. She was a staunch supporter of life. Angie and her husband, Zeke, were among the founders of Merrimack Valley Right To Life Committee. They hosted, with the help of their children and grandchildren, two pool parties every summer for almost twenty years for the youth attending summer camp of the Sisters of Mother Teresa of Calcutta. Angie prepared the food while her husband, Zeke, served as a life guard and taught swimming and diving to the children. Not only were Angie and Zeke outstanding examples of integrity and virtue for their children, but they also taught the importance of love, sacrifice and discipline.

Angie’s seven children are: Armand Hyatt (and his wife, Karen) of Amesbury, Father Martin Hyatt from Saint Basil Seminary in Methuen, Nadema Gemmill (and her husband, Douglas) of Windham, NH, Peter Hyatt (and his wife, Maureen) of Windham, NH, Sofia White (and her husband, Ian) of Andover, Francis Hyatt of Nashua, NH, and Joseph Hyatt (and his wife, Elizabeth) of Bedford, NH.

She is survived by her brother, Michael Manzi and her sister, Anna Tulley and many, many nieces and nephews.

Angie was proud of her Italian heritage, and maintained a close relationship with her cousins in Italy, both in Quindici (where her father was born) and in the nearby region of Nola and also in Siracusa, Sicily. Armand, Fr. Martin and family, I am so sorry to read about your mother. She was a beautiful person. My aunt, Mary Bluemel, often spoke fondly of her and your dad and family when she heard of my attendance at St Basils. Fr Martin often mentioned her and what a devoted and loving mother she was. May her soul rest in peace and may all of her family find strength and peace in knowing that she will be joining your father in heaven. My deepest sympathy, Kelly Campbell

I remember spending time at her house as a teenager. She had such grace and patience.

Fr. Bill Waters, Osa posted:

My first recollection of Angie was in 1972, not long after my ordination and my first assignment as a priest to St. Augustine Parish on Tower Hill. I was to be a guest on a local talk-in radio show on the topic of abortion. She and Armand helped my preparation tremendously by visiting me and providing me with a great deal of pertinent and contemporary legislative and legal information. I was forever grateful for their invaluable assistance. Fr. Bill Waters, OSA
