Teresa (Trzebowski) Zawadzki

JUN 1, 1924 - SEP 15, 2017

Teresa (Trzebowski) Zawadzki, 93, of Methuen, Massachusetts passed away on Friday, September 15, 2017 at the Merrimack Valley Hospice House in Haverhill, MA.

She was born on June 1, 1924 in Jarocinie, Jarocin, Poland, daughter of the late Piotr Trzebowski and Rozalia Koterba Trzebowski.

Teresa was always a positive and energetic person. Her younger years were filled with turmoil but she still tried to maintain a positive attitude. At the age of 14 she was captured by the Germans at the beginning of World War II and taken to a concentration/labor camp. She was held there until the war ended. At that time she chose to come to the United States through Canada by working as an indentured servant for one year. She enjoyed a free and prosperous life after that with her husband, whom she met in the prison camp, and with her son.

She worked for a long period of time at the Essems Hot Dog Company and was a life Member of Holy Trinity Church in Lawrence as well as attending Corpus Christi, Holy Rosary Church from time to time.

Her final years were extremely happy as she watched her grandsons develop into young men. At that point she became entertained with her four great-grandsons and a great-granddaughter. She also enjoyed gardening, doing all kinds of puzzles and taking care of her dog. She was an inspiration to all who knew her.

Wife of the late John Zawadzki

Her family members include her son Henry and his wife Sherry Zawadzki of Methuen, MA.

Her grandsons Michael and his wife Michele Zawadzki and Jason and his wife Cherie Zawadzki both of Dracut, MA.

Henry. Teresa was an amazing lady to say the least. She was a joy to talk to and loved telling "Henry tales". Lol. Of course our favorite story is the leaky refrigerator when you were on vacation. I think Mike became a saint in Teresa's eyes. I loved the stories of how she would tackle any chore, shovel the snow by sneaking out through the garage and of course the infamous poison ivy tales. I think you should put a sign on the gate that says Teresa's garden! You are so lucky to have her as your mom and she was so lucky to have you and Sherry and the boys and little Mia in her life. Rest easy Teresa
❤️🌻 Love Mike and Mary.
