Maureen G. (Clark) Imielkowski

NOV 5, 1941 - OCT 22, 2017

Maureen G. (Clark) Imielkowski, 75, passed away peacefully at Lahey Clinic on Sunday, October 22nd, with her family by her side.

Born in Lawrence, the daughter of Alice (Johnson) Clark and Martin Clark. Maureen graduated from Lawrence High School where she made a myriad of friends who remained close throughout her life.

She worked at Columbia Paper Company and Compugraphic, later known as Agfa, where her position was Administrative Assistant and ultimate party planner. Her parties and excursions were known throughout Agfa, and was known as the organizer and planning event coordinator. She retired in 2001. After retirement, she continued her parties, having the most amazing celebrations at her house, which included Christmas Parties, Anniversaries, and Birthdays.

Maureen travelled extensively and went all over Europe to so many countries and also within the United States.

She was most proud of her Irish heritage and loved going to Irish dances, where she learned Irish dancing under the tutelage of Rita O'Shea. She was quite proficient in the Irish dance. Her love of music was infectious. She dragged every one she knew to all the Happy Louie Polka Dances. She learned to play the piano when she was in her 50's, an accomplishment she was most proud of.

She was beloved by so many, which included her family, friends, and co-workers. She was the most loving mother, sister, daughter, wife, aunt and most of all friend. Our hearts are broken, but we are all so fortunate to have had Maureen in our lives.

She was the wife of the late Alfred Z. "Ziggy" Imielkowski

Maureen leaves behind her faithful and devoted daughter, Mary, who lived with her, her sisters Joanne Slater and husband Jim, of Salem, New Hampshire; Patricia Zahn Kudzma, of Nashua,

I am terribly sad to learn of Maureen's passing. She was always so full of life, laughing and making others feel happy. Maureen was about as honest a woman as one will ever have the pleasure of meeting. She would joke and make you laugh about whatever you may have disagreed about. Maureen was very well respected and liked by all of our classmates at Lawrence High School. To her family, please accept my sincerest condolences. Janet (Cuomo) McSweeney

My deepest sympathy to Maureen's family. She was such a happy lady and full of life. So Happy I got to see her a few weeks ago and got to share a hug. I received a beautiful note from her a few days later and I will treasure her words. Another angel has left us. Memories will give us that little smile when we think of her ❤️ Your friend, Ramona
