To my sister, I love you more than you could ever know. My heart hurts and my tears fall but I know how at peace you are with Our Heavenly Father. You will never suffer no more your pain is gone forever. You are finally at peace. Although I will never hear your voice or see your smiling face I will carry you in my heart and memory forever. I have many good memories to cherish . I will miss your calls and our talks. We comforted one another in need, made each other laugh but most of all we were there when we needed each other. You are in a better place now and the storm has ended. We will see each other again . Say hi to Dad and Joey and Ronnie. Until we meet again my sister always remember how much I love you and how peaceful you are now. Love Denice
