Michael Stanley Cubelli

JUL 18, 1963 - SEP 22, 2018

Michael Stanley Cubelli, 55, died unexpectedly of a sudden heart attack on Saturday, September 22 at his home in Derry, NH. Born in Lawrence, MA on July 18, 1963, Michael was the son of the late Madelyn Irene (Harris) Cubelli and the stepson of the late Matthew Spencer Harris, Jr.

Michael left Lawrence High School in 1981, completed his GED and enlisted in Air Force where began his career as a Sargent with the Military Police in Germany. He was transferred to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, where he completed a Certificate in Law Enforcement at the Community College of the Air Force at SC State University. In later years he also graduated with a certificate in Patisserie and Baking from the College of Culinary Art at Le Cordon Bleu in Atlanta, GA.

Upon his discharge in 1986 Michael worked as a Police Officer for the City of Myrtle Beach. Over the span of his 30-year career in South Carolina he served as a SWAT Officer, a detective for the West Columbia and IRMA Police Departments, and at the Richland County Sheriff's Department.

In 2017, after the sudden death of his ex-wife of 10 years, Karen Elizabeth James Cubelli, Michael retired from the South Carolina State University Police Department in Orangeburg, and relocated with his children back home to New England.

Michael enjoyed many hobbies and was well known for his delectable cakes and pastries. He traveled with the Iron Pigs Motorcycle Club for 20 years. He had an extensive fire arms collection and trained others in proper technique. He also trained his fellow officers in Karate. He was an active member of the Italian Social Club on Facebook, and an enthusiastic Boston sports fan. Michael was so happy to be able to take his children to their first Red Sox and Patriots' games this year.

Michael is survived by his daughter, Juliana Irene, and his son, Carmine Joseph; his sister, Michele Cubelli Harris of Methuen, MA, and brothers, Matthew S. Harris, III, and Marc T. Harris, both of Lowell, MA; step sisters, Maxine Woods and her husband

I had the honor and pleasure of working with Michael Cubelli at the Myrtle Beach police dept. and Richland County Sheriffs office. In my opinion, he was a very honorable police officer. The world was a better place with him in it. Rest my old friend, and I am sure we will see each other again. God bless his family, Kevin Workman

I never had the opportunity or the privilege of meeting Mike but we chatted thru Facebook like we had known each other for years. He was such a kind hearted man and loved his children with all of his heart. I will miss him and know that the world was a better place with Mike in it. Heaven gained a great soul. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family.

As one who knew Michael when he came into this world, one who babysat him, teased him, and loved him, I am heartbroken by his untimely death. Michael faced many challenges when he was growing up but, he turned those challenges into his lifetime commitment to law. Michael was the most adorable little boy who grew into a loving son, brother, uncle, father and friend. My wish for his family is simple..remember him. Remember his spirit. Remember his smile. Remember his sense of humor. Remember his love. Talk about him..keep the conversations real. Don't martyr his memory in death..for truly, you will lose his essence. Talk to him...and know he is always with you.My condolences to his children and his siblings...and to all who were blessed to know this wonderful person. Rest in Peace, Michael...say hello to mom and Sexy Sadie..find my son and introduce yourself to him again...shine in God's presence.
