So sorry for your loss. Jay was a yteat guy. Had a heart of gold and a smile to light up a room. So many fun memories working at Jt's. This was when we got shirts and jay was so excited because of the different colors :)

Kerry, Sean, Brian & Kevin,I consider myself lucky to have known Jay and his family as well as I did. Coaching the boys at Wakefield High was a privilege. Some of my favorite years was coaching with Jay while the boys were on the team. Jay was at every hoop practice and was a great help keeping me from many a technical foul. Kerry was a great fan of you all.I last saw Jay at Justin's funeral and we promised to stay in touch. Life has a tendency to get in the way and I'm sorry to say we had just exchange messages. Having coached with Jay, a friend of Kerry and coached 3 teen age boys I have some great stories and better memories. I wish I had an opportunity see Jay more recently.I will miss him and can see that Jay Timmons smile. Reminds me of Cool Hand Luke.Coach Marshall
