Ann Maucieri

MAR 18, 1930 - DEC 25, 2019

Lawrence, MA and Kennebunkport, ME — Ann Maucieri, 89 became an angel on Christmas Day, 2019. Ann would like to let you know that her work here is done. Her new mission takes her to a wonderful place where she will be socializing, dancing, singing and reading to her heart's content. Music, laughter and love are guaranteed. Food is delicious and you never gain an ounce. We were blessed to learn many valuable lessons from Ann during her 89 years, among them: “get over here and give me a hug”, never enough hugs in her world. “Never throw away old pantyhose, use the old ones to wrap around your head to get rid of that headache, no aspirin necessary.” And “never, ever throw away food in the fridge. Leftovers, no matter what color are still good”.

In her day, Ann was an avid dancer, winning the Cha-Cha contest with the late Tony Manelli. She was an accomplished candlepin bowler and was proud of her many trophies. She also skied as a member of the Lawrencian ski club. She was an organist and sang in the choir at the Holy Rosary Church. Her love of music resulted in learning to play the piano by ear becoming quite an accomplished musician. Ann enjoyed 50 summers at Gooserocks Beach in Maine where she loved her summer home and the many friends and organizations she belonged to.

Ann was born and raised in Lawrence, MA on March 18, 1930, the daughter of the late Michael and Ralphaela (Quaglietta) DiBitetto.

Left behind to carry on Ann's legacy, her best friend and beloved husband of 59 years, Nick; sons Nick Jr. and wife Debbie (Tyrrell) of Kennebunkport, ME; Rob and Diane of Hudson NH; grandchildren Jeremy his wife Kristen Sweeney of Dracut, MA; Melodee and husband Marquise Brown of Sabastian, FL; Shawn Paprocki, Jessica, Amanda and Robert Jr. Mauceri of Hudson New Hampshire. Ann is also survived by her sister Eleanor, husband Ralph Traverso, sister-in-law Constance Molinari and Ann's very special and loved niece Maribeth Traverso. There are many great grandchildren, nieces and nephews not mentioned but never forgotten. Ann was preceded in death by her brother and sister-in-law, Michael and Ethel DiBitetto of Venice FL.

We want to let her know that she did a great job and wish her a safe journey. We will always remember her smile, her warmth, her energy, her love for family, friends and life.

She made a difference in the lives of many. We invite you to join us and celebrate together.

Family and friends are invited to call on Monday, December 30, 2019 beginning at 8:30 A.M. at the John Breen Memorial Funeral Home, 35 Merrimack St. in North Andover, MA, followed by a Mass at 10:00 A.M. in St. Michaels Church, 196 Main St., also in North Andover. Dear Mr Mauceri, Ricky, Robbie, Mr & Mrs Traverso & Maribeth, We were so very lucky to have such wonderful, loving moms & dads growing up on Crestshire Drive! I knew I could always go to your mom if I ever needed anything. I always remember her joyful smile & energetic personality! My best memory back then, when she would turn onto Crestshire, she would joyfully beep her horn, announcing she was getting close to your house & miraculously, your garage door would open! (Before, of course we had remote garage openers!) My parents & I were at the mass today, but missed giving you all hugs. Sending my love, prayers & condolences for the sad loss of Mrs Mauceri. Love, Jeanne Roscigno

Mr. M, Deb, Nick and Family, There are no words for the loss you must be feeling. One of the brightest stars was taken but the Heavens are a much happier place now. Thinking about how that wonderfully booming voice as you came in to the driveway of "get over here and give me a hug" or "is that Richard" will be deeply missed. Hoping Mr. M. can find some peace in knowing the incredibly selfless care and unconditional love he was able to give Mrs. M. everyday, a true love story that we can only hope for. Ann (Mrs. M.), you are and will be missed. No doubt you are already dancing on a cloud, glass of wine in hand and watching over your beautiful family. All our Love, Cindy, Dick and Family

I didn't know your beloved Ann. Her beautiful words & the lives she touched spoke to my heart. I look forward, with great joy, to meeting Ann when my work here is finished. I pray the precious memories, you carry in your hearts, of her, will be a constant source of heavenly consolations. Although, I don't know any of you, you're all in my prayers & in my heart. With many prayers, Mary. 🙏🙏🙏

Memories only last if you share them
