At Wilmington High School during school year 1968-69, Miss Kalil believed she had the right combination of talent in her Concert Choir class to stage the musical, "My Fair Lady." I, Dana Mather, was privileged to be one of her students. Through her hard work and belief in us kids, she pulled it off. I have had a rich and fulfilling life since then, but "My Fair Lady" remains one of the great highlights. Thank you, Miss Kalil, thank you.

Miss Kalil was my music teacher during my high school years 'way back' in the late 50's. I've always loved music, of all kinds— perhaps her love of music was contagious. She was a truly a fine person and a wonderful teacher. My thoughts of her all these years are fond memories and admiration for her devotion to her students. God bless you and Rest In Peace. Lorraine was one of my favorite and first customers from the 70's when I started my business. I always enjoyed talking to her and playing with her dogs. Bumping into her at the store down the street was always a pleasure. God bless!! Ron Hatem
