Joyce, Joe & Michael, I'm so saddened to hear of the passing of Paul. I reflect back on so many great times we had through the years. Of all his wonderful accomplishments, his greatest was raising the two sons of whom he was so proud. Sending love to all of you, Carole Ann

Paul was my cousin and also a great friend. He was thoughtful and compassionate. I always enjoyed our conversations whether over a beer, over dinner or over the phone. When he laughed his face turned red. He often had a twinkle in his eye. When I was feeling low he picked me up. I loved this guy. I will miss him greatly. Tom Shannon

Tom, Paul would let me drive Mary's green Chevy around their backyard. More than once I came close to giving us both a whiplash because I hit those power brakes too hard. I may also of had a beer with him while we were lining up to do a St Patrick's parade with Jim. Fun time with my big cousin.

Joyce, Joe, and Mike -- We are so incredibly sorry for your loss. It's truly a loss for all of us. We've been so lucky to know Paul for more than a decade now. We loved every holiday, kids birthday party, special event, that we got to see him and laugh with him. He truly will be missed by all, and especially by us. We are sending you all our love xoxoxox Kris, Steve & Aidan
