Fran Peters

DEC 23, 1961 - NOV 27, 2022

Fran Peters, 60, of Andover, MA unexpectedly passed away on November 27, 2022, his 29th Wedding Anniversary at Massachusetts General Hospital of Heart Arrhythmia due to complications from Pneumonia surrounded by his wife Tracey, his brothers in law and his cousins. He was born on December 23, 1961 in Planview, NY to the late Edmund and Joan (Dunne) Peters.

Fran was a graduate of Pocono High School and East Stroudsburg University in Pennsylvania with a B.S. in Physical Education and Health Education. Fran grew up in Old Beth Page, NY and Tobyhanna, PA. Fran worked at the Bank of New York, in Manhattan for several years. He met his wife Tracey at Camelback Mountain in PA, while they were skiing. Fran and Tracey eventually moved to Huntington Beach California for a short time before they moved to the island of Oahu, HI. While in Hawaii Fran worked in mortgages, rediscovered his love of playing lacrosse, golfed and ran an afterschool program for children in Waikiki. They eventually moved back to Huntington Beach, CA where they settled for 15 years. Fran worked as an HR Director for multiple mortgage companies. His passion however was all things sports especially skiing, golf, NASCAR and lacrosse and as a fan the NY Jets and the NY Mets, and as a convert the LA Angels where he had season tickets. He also coached lacrosse and ended his coaching career in Southern California as the head lacrosse coach at Sage Hill School in Newport Beach, CA. They then moved to Massachusetts where they first settled in the North End then moved to Wilmington, Ma where he was head lacrosse coach at Wilmington High School and finally settled in Andover, MA

Fran is survived by his beloved wife of 28 years, Tracey Gauthier-Peters. He is survived by his sister Maryfran and her husband Allan Bohner of Ponce Inlet, FL; his sister Jeanne Patti; his brother Edmund Peters both of Daytona Beach, FL; His father-in-law Robert Gauthier of North Andover; his sister-in-law Joan Gauthier and
