I've worked for an outside company for about 6 years, and The Home Depot, Salem is one of my stores. I was lucky if I saw Donna once a week- at her desk or by running into one another in the store. She had this magical way about her- she emulated the person I strive to be, a person who can choose to be happy no matter what and stick to it. Not only for herself but for others she was happy, a constant gift she gave through her bright character. We did not know each other very well but every time I'd see her I just knew she was the kind of person who would always have time for me if I needed someone- or anyone else for that matter. On a soul level I felt a bond with her. Her aura was Godly. My heart breaks for Bill, her sibling, and her beautiful horse Destiney, and her dogs. I love you Donna, thank you for always being such a kind person- you were a great example to everyone on how to treat people with kindness and love, and probably the happiest person I've ever met that has worked at a Depot! I'll always hear your laugh coming around the corner when I'm in Salem. I love you, rest in peach our Angel. ALY
