Harry L. Walker

AUG 27, 1931 - JUL 22, 2024

Harry Walker was born and raised in the Merrimack Valley where he created an amazing life with his late wife Carole. He worked as the head of grounds for the National Guard base in Reading, and for many years ran a successful landscaping business with his wife in Andover. Harry was the type of guy who would do anything for the ones he loved. He was a huge animal lover and always had beautiful dogs who he loved. Harry is survived by his beloved daughter Leigh Joiner of Methuen. His two beautiful granddaughters Heather Girard, her husband Dan Girard and Jen Joiner-Sims, her wife Letitia Joiner-Sims also of Methuen. His grandson Nicholas Joiner and his wife Christina of Andover, and Nicholas's two beautiful daughters, Harry's great granddaughters Arianah and Charissa also from Andover who Harry absolutely loved, adored, and spoiled. Harry will be greatly missed by his family and all of his close friends, and always remembered for his selflessness and devotion to the ones he loved.

Just heard of Harry's passing. What a great guy he was, will be sorely missed. Loved listening the stories he would tell and will miss playing 45s with him.
