It is truly an honor to be the grandchild of such a kind, admirable and loving man. Even though I lived in another state, our bond remains strong. I thank God for blessing me and giving me the opportunity to share many wonderful memories with my grandfather. My grandfather's legacy is a life well lived, filled with laughter and a family filled with true love. Although he is not with us physically, I know his spirit will continue to live with us and of course, it's not a goodbye, it's just a see you later. I'll love you always grandpa! Es un verdadero honor ser nieta de un hombre tan amable, admirable y cariñoso. Aunque vivía en otro estado, nuestra relación siempre estuvo fuerte. Doy gracias a Dios por bendecirme y darme la oportunidad de compartir muchos recuerdos maravillosos con mi abuelo. El legado de mi abuelo es una vida bien vivida, llena de risas y una familia llena de amor verdadero. Aunque no esté con nosotros físicamente, sé que su espíritu seguirá viviendo con nosotros y claro, no es un adiós, es sólo un hasta luego. Te amare por siempre abuelito!

My father was a great man. He showed us with his testimony how important God and family are. Before getting sick, I just remember one Sunday, that he missed Sunday mass, and the only reason he didn't go that Sunday was because, I was taking my husband to the emergency room and he decided to go with me instead. His faith was big, and he work hard to grow the kingdom of God through the cursillos for more than 25 years, serving every church where he lived. When we were little, on Sundays afternoon, my father would gather the whole family (at that time 3 of us) and take us to different places: rivers, beaches, park, zoo, chinchorros, family or friends visits, anything to give the family quality time. The longest time that my father and I had lived apart was 20 months, the moment my daughter was born, he came to Massachusetts and stay with us. He loved her as the second daughter he never had, taking her to preschool and to school after that. He always said that was his daughter and I'll always be thankful for all that love. Although, I have no regrets, I showed my dad that he was so much loved as well, I'll miss him until the day that we reunited again...
