Edward J. Bortolino

SEP 10, 1958 - JUN 5, 2025

Edward J. Bortolino, 66, of Lawrence, MA, passed away peacefully on June 5, 2025, at the High Pointe House in Haverhill, MA, after a long illness.

Born on September 10, 1958, he was the son of the late Edward and Sophie (Smuss) Bortolino. A 1976 graduate of Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational and Technical High School, Eddy excelled in carpentry and went on to serve his country with pride in the United States Marine Corps. Stationed in Quantico, Virginia, as a surveyor, he later served as a reservist and received an honorable discharge after six years of service. He was awarded the Good Conduct Medal in recognition of his dedication and commitment.

Eddy began his career with Howes Construction in Windham, NH, and later founded Bortolino and Son Construction. A talented craftsman and hardworking professional, he formed many lifelong friendships throughout his life and career. Known for his love of the outdoors, Eddy was often seen working in shorts even in winter. He enjoyed snowmobiling, camping, and especially racing with his son, Matthew.

Eddy is survived by his beloved son, Matthew E. Bortolino of Hampton Falls, NH; his sister Janis and her husband Thomas Haynes of Hampton, NH; his brother David Bortolino of Methuen, MA; his cherished niece Mia Haynes; and many dear friends.

The family would like to extend heartfelt thanks to the dedicated staff at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Brighton, MA, and High Pointe House in Haverhill, MA, for their compassionate care during Eddy's illness.
