“ This is a Childhood memory of my brother Jack and our brother Norm that always comes to mind when I think of them. I think I was about eight years old, the last year I believed there was a Santa Claus! My brothers helped me to still believe by Norm coming into my bedroom to tell me Santa was coming soon. Then my brother Jack hung out the window above my room and he made a whole bunch of noise for Santa and his sleigh, very convincing to an eight year old!! Then the two of them convinced me that indeed Santa had come and gone already! I was thoroughly convinced for one more year that there truly was a Santa! Thanks to my wonderful two older brothers!
