

Steven C. Hannagan

September 7, 1953 - October 23, 2020

Steven C. Hannagan, 67, a resident of Nashua, New Hampshire passed away unexpectedly on Friday, October 23, 2020 of a cardiac event.

Born in Lawrence and educated in the local schools, Steven worked in both roofing and construction for many years. He was a regular attendee of A.A. He loved horse racing and also enjoyed going deep sea fishing over the past summer. Steven was a very spiritual person and always believed in a higher power.

The son of the late John and Eileen (Gaughan) Hannagan, Steven is survived by his siblings Kathleen A. O'Donohue of Haverhill, MA, John J. Hannagan and his wife Debra also of Haverhill, MA, James E. Hannagan and his wife Caron of both Methuen, MA and Myrtle Beach, SC as well as many nieces, nephews and cousins. Steven is also survived by his best friend Stacy J. Dalesio of Nashua, NH. He was the brother of the late Michael J. Hannagan.

Funeral Services and burial are private. To honor Steven's memory the family asks that you engage in a random act of kindness.
